

Preparing to Meet Allah (swt) On the Final Day

Rasulullah (s) explained the importance of preparing for the Day of Judgment. Take the quiz below to see how well prepared you are. Be sure to work hard to improve the items NOT checked.

1

Worshiping Allah (swt)

- I pray all five prayers daily
- I make salah with my whole heart and with sincerity
- I always turn to Allah (swt) first when making decisions
- I make an effort to thank Allah (swt) for all my blessings
- I read the Qur'an daily

2

Personal Character

- I never backbite (talk behind someone's back)
- I make an effort to hide the faults or mistakes of others
- I choose my friends wisely; my friends are a good influence on me
- I am a good influence on my friends
- I do not show off or act like I'm better than others
- I try not hurt people's feelings
- I do not use inappropriate language

3

Following the Sunnah of Rasulullah (s)

- I make an effort to learn about my deen and practice what I learn
- I treat others with kindness and respect
- I look for opportunities to help those in need; I try to be generous
- I fulfill my promises; I am trustworthy
- I maintain cleanliness of my mind, body, and heart

4

Islamic Obligations

- During Ramadan I keep all my fasts if I am able to
- During Ramadan I make an extra effort to pray more and give more, share
- I make an effort to attend Jummah prayers
- I quietly listen to the entire Khuthbah and try to incorporate what I learned into my daily life
- I never disobey my parents, talk to them rudely, or roll my eyes at them
- I set a good example for my brothers and sisters
- I respect elders, teachers, and those in authority
- I do my part to take care of the environment, take care of Allah's creations and I try not to waste resources.

5

Sin and Repentance

- I am not holding a grudge against anyone
- I do not continually commit a sin that I know I should not do
- If I commit a sin I ask for forgiveness with sincerity and seek guidance
- I do not encourage my friends to commit sins
- I do not use drugs, alcohol, or any other harmful toxins
- I maintain modesty in the way I dress, speak, and behave
- I am not hypocritical about anything